REGULATION OF THE COORDINATING MINISTER
FOR POLITICAL AND SECURITY AFFAIRS
OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA
NUMBER 2 OF 2025
ON GRATIFICATION CONTROL

BY THE GRACE OF ALMIGHTY GOD

COORDINATING MINISTER FOR POLITICAL AND SECURITY AFFAIRS OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA, Considering :

a. that in order to achieve a clean system of state administration that is free from corruption, collusion, and nepotism, it is necessary to establish measures for controlling acceptance and giving of gratification within the Coordinating Ministry for Political and Security Affairs;
b. that Regulation of the Coordinating Minister for Political and Security Affairs Number 1 of 2020 on Gratification Control within the Coordinating Ministry for Political and Security Affairs is no longer in accordance with development of laws and regulations and organizational needs, it is necessary to be replaced;
c. that based on the consideration as referred to in paragraphs a and b, it is necessary to issue Regulation of the Coordinating Minister for Political and Security Affairs on Gratification Control;

Having regard to :

1. Article 17 section (3) of the 1945 Constitution of the Republic of Indonesia;
2. Law Number 39 of 2008 on State Ministry (State Gazette of the Republic of Indonesia Year 2008 Number 166, Supplement to the State Gazette of the Republic of Indonesia Number 4916) as amended by Law Number 61 of 2024 on amendment to Law Number 39 of 2008 on State Ministry (State Gazette of the Republic of Indonesia Year 2024 Number 225, Supplement to the State Gazette of the Republic of Indonesia Number 6994);
3. Presidential Regulation Number 141 of 2024 on Coordinating Ministry for Political and Security Affairs (State Gazette of the Republic of Indonesia Year 2024 Number 337);

4. Regulation of the Coordinating Minister for Political and Security Affairs Number 6 of 2024 on Organization and Working Procedures Coordinating Ministry for Political and Security Affairs (Official Gazette of the Republic of Indonesia Year 2024 Number 950);

HEREBY DECIDES:

To issue : REGULATION OF THE COORDINATING MINISTER FOR POLITICAL AND SECURITY AFFAIRS ON GRATIFICATION CONTROL.

Article 1

In this Regulation of the Coordinating Minister:

1. Gratification means, in a broad sense, including those money, goods, rebates, commissions, interest-free loans, travel tickets, lodging facilities, tourist trips, free medical treatment, and any other types of facilities, both domestically and abroad, using electronic means or not.
2. Gratification Control means a series of activities designed to prevent corruption offense in the form of Gratification related to their positions and are contrary to their obligations or duties, and to manage the refusal, acceptance, and giving of Gratification in an effective, efficient, and transparent manner.
3. State Administrators means state official that is running executive, legislative, or judiciary function, and other officials those performing executive, legislative, or judicial function, as well as other officials whose primary function and duties relate d to the administration of the state in accordance with the provisions of laws and regulations.
4. Employees within the Coordinating Ministry, the Secretariat of the National Police Commission, and the Secretariat of the Prosecution Commission of the Republic of Indonesia, hereinafter referred to as Employees, means Civil Servant, Prospective Civil Servant, Indonesian National Armed Forces soldiers, members of the Indonesia National Police and/or other employees who are appointed based on a decision of the competent authority and works full time within an organizational unit in the Coordinating Ministry, the Secretariat of the National Police Commission, and the Secretariat of the Prosecution Commission of the Republic of Indonesia.
5. Conflict of Interest means a condition in which a government official holds a personal interest in obtaining a benefit for themselves and/or another person in the exercise of their authority, thereby affecting the neutrality and quality of the Decisions and/or actions made and/or taken by them.
6. Official Activities means all activities carried out by Employees in relation to the performance of their duties and functions as well as in relation to their positions.
7. Generally Applicable means a condition in which a benefit is provided equally in terms of its type, form, requirement or value, to all Employees or State Administrators and complies with the principle of reasonableness or compliance.

8. Gratification Recipient means an Employee or State Administrator serving within the Coordinating Ministry, the Secretariat of the National Police Commission and the Secretariat of the Prosecution Commission of the Republic of Indonesia. who receives Gratification.
9. Gratification Giver means any parties whether an individual, groups of individuals, legal entities or institutions that gives Gratification to Gratification Recipient.
10. Gratification Reporter means an Employee or a State Administrator serving within the Coordinating Ministry who submits a report on the refusal or acceptance of Gratification.
11. Colleague means a fellow Employee with whom there is direct interaction in the course of Official Activities.
12. Corruption Eradication Commission (Komisi Pemberantasan Korupsi) hereinafter abbreviated to the KPK means a state institution within the executive branch that carries out the duties of preventing and eradicating corruption offense as regulated by the law governing the commission for the eradication of corruption offense.
13. Gratification Control Unit (Unit Pengendalian Gratifikasi) hereinafter abbreviated to the UPG means the unit that is tasked and responsible for the implementation of Gratification Control within the Coordinating Ministry for Political and Security Affairs.
14. Application means the online Gratification reporting application developed by the KPK to be used by ministries, institutions, state-owned enterprises, local governments, and local -owned enterprises.
15. Coordinating Ministry for Political and Security Affairs hereinafter referred to as the Coordinating Ministry means a ministry responsible for synchronizing and coordinating the implementation of ministerial affairs in the administration of government in the field of political and security affairs.
16. Coordinating Minister for Political and Security Affairs hereinafter referred to as the Coordinating Minister means the leadership element of the Coordinating Ministry responsible for the implementation of duties and functions of the Coordinating Ministry.

Article 2

Gratification Control is carried out within:

a. the Coordinating Ministry;
b. the Secretariat of the National Police Commission; and
c. the Secretariat of the Prosecution Commission of the Republic of Indonesia.

Article 3

(1) Employees or State Administrators who receive Gratification shall report the Gratification received.

(2) Gratification as referred to in paragraph (1) shall be refused if it is deemed to be related to the recipient's position and contrary to the recipient's responsibilities or duties.
(3) Employees or State Administrators who refuse Gratification as referred to in paragraph (2) may submit a Gratification report.
(4) The report as referred to in paragraphs (1) and (3) is submitted to the UPG and/or the KPK.

Article 4

Gratification that is deemed to be related to the recipient's position and contrary to the recipient's responsibility or duties as referred to in Article 3 paragraph (2) includes at least:
a. services provided to the public that are not in accordance with the provisions of laws and regulations;
b. the process of formulating programs, activities, and/or budgets;
c. the process of inspection, audit, review, evaluation, monitoring, verification, identification, testing, assessment, and/or similar activities;
d. the implementation of lawful or official assignment involving the receipt of benefits exceeding the applicable standard input cost;
e. the process of acceptance, promotions, or transfers of Employees that are not in accordance with the provisions of laws and regulations;
f. the execution of cooperation agreement, contract, arrangement with another party whether before, during, or after its implementation;
g. fee or collection fee from a bank or other financial institutions to an Employee or State Administrator in relation to the activities of the work unit;
h. sponsorship of activities within the Coordinating Ministry that is suspected of potentially resulting in a Conflict of Interest;
i. entertainment facilities including but not limited to anything in form of words, places, objects, conduct that may provide entertainment and enjoyment to a person; and
j. the performance of work related to the recipient's position and contrary to the recipient's responsibilities or duties.

Article 5

The obligation to report a Gratification as referred to in Article 3 paragraph (1) is excluded in the following circumstances:
a. any giving within family, namely grandfathers, grandmothers, father, mother, parents in law, husband, wife, children, children in law, adopted children, legal guardian, grandchildren, the parents of children in law, uncles, aunts, siblings, sibling in law, cousins, and/or niece/nephew provided that no Conflict of Interest exists;
b. any profit or interest derived from the placement of funds, investment or personal share ownership that are Generally Applicable;
c. any benefit from a cooperative, an employee organization or similar organization by virtue of membership that are Generally Applicable;

d. any equipment or materials provided to participant in Official Activities such as seminars, workshops, conferences, training, or similar activities, that are Generally Applicable;
e. any gift not in the form of money or other medium of exchange, intended for promotional or public awareness purpose bearing a logo or public awareness massage, provided that no Conflict of Interest exists and such gifts are Generally Applicable;
f. any gifts, tokens of appreciation or awards received from championship, races or competitions participated in at recipient's own expense and unrelated to Official Activities;
g. any awards whether in the form of money or goods related to the improvement of work performance granted by the government in accordance with the provisions of laws and regulations;
h. any direct gifts, lucky draw prizes, discounts, rebates, vouchers, point rewards, or souvenirs that are Generally Applicable and unrelated to Official Activities;
i. any compensations or honoraria for professional activities outside of Official Activities that are unrelated to the duties and responsibilities of the Employees or State Administrators, provided that no Conflict of Interest exists and such activities do not violate regulations or code of ethic of the relevant Employees or State Administrators;
j. any compensation received related to Officials Activities such as honoraria, transportation, accommodation and expense as determined under the applicable cost standards, provided there is no double financing, no conflict of interest, and no violation of the applicable provisions;
k. any floral arrangements given as greetings on occasion such as engagements, weddings, births, funerals, aqiqah ceremonies, baptisms, circumcisions, tooth-filing ceremonies, or other traditional or religious ceremonies, farewell and welcome events, retirement, promotion;
l. any gifts related to engagements, weddings, births, aqiqah ceremonies, baptisms, circumcisions, tooth-filing ceremonies, or other traditional or religious ceremonies with a value limit of IDR 1,000,000.00 (one million rupiah) per giver;
m. any gifts related to misfortune or disaster experienced by the Gratification Recipient, the recipient's husband, wife, children, parents, parents in law, and/or children in law provided that no Conflict of Interest exists, and meet standards of reasonableness or propriety;
n. any gifts exchanged among Colleagues in connection with farewell and welcome events, retirement, transfers to other positions, or birthdays not in the form of money or other medium of exchange and do not exceed IDR 300.000,00 (three hundred thousand rupiah) per gift per giver, with the total value of gifts not exceeding IDR 1.000.000,00 (one million rupiah) in one (1) year from the same giver, provided that no Conflict of Interest exists;
o. any gifts among Colleagues not in the form of money or other medium of exchange, and unrelated to Official

Activities and do not exceed IDR 200,000.00 (two hundred thousand rupiah) per gift per giver, with the total value of gifts not exceeding IDR 1.000.000,00 (one million rupiah) in one (1) year from the same giver;

p. any gifts in the form of food or refreshment that are Generally Applicable; and

q. any gifts of souvenirs or plaques to institutions in connection with Official Activities and state affairs, whether domestically or abroad provided that such gifts are not given to individual Employees or State Administrators.

Article 6

(1) The Gratification object received must be kept by Gratification Reporter until the status of the Gratification object is determined by the KPK.

(2) In the event that the Gratification object received cannot be kept by the Gratification Reporter, the UPG may facilitate the safekeeping of the Gratification object and accompanied by an acknowledgment of receipt of the safekeeping of the Gratification object;

(3) In the event that the safekeeping of the Gratification object is carried out by the UPG as referred to in paragraph (2), the UPG may coordinate with the work unit responsible for household management.

(4) The Gratification Object received as referred to in paragraph (1), shall be submitted to the KPK in the event that:
   a. the report requires originality test; and/or
   b. for the purpose of verification and analysis by the KPK.

Article 7

(1) In the event that the Gratification object consists of perishable food and/or beverage and the Gratification Giver is known, the Gratification object is refused and returned by the Gratification Recipient to the Gratification Giver;

(2) The refusal as referred to in paragraph (1) may be reported to the UPG.

(3) Where the Gratification object consists of perishable food and/or beverages and/or the Gratification Giver is unknown, the Gratification object may be directly distributed as social aid by the Gratification Recipient.

(4) The distribution as referred in paragraph (3) is reported to the UPG accompanied by documentation of its implementation.

Article 8

(1) The Gratification report as referred to in Article 3 paragraph (3) is submitted to:
   a. The UPG within a period of not later than ten (10) workdays from the date of refusal or acceptance of the Gratification; or
   b. The KPK within a period of not later than thirty (30) workdays from the date of refusal or acceptance of the Gratification.

(2) Where further information concerning the reported Gratification as referred to in paragraph (1) is required, the Gratification Reporter must comply with the request for further information from the UPG or the KPK.
(3) The UPG as referred to in paragraph (1) subparagraph a shall forward the Gratification report to the KPK within a period of not later than ten (10) workdays from the date of receipt of the Gratification report.
(4) The Gratification report as referred to in paragraph (1) includes at least:
    a. identity of the recipient consisting of the population identification number, name, full address, and telephone number;
    b. information on the Gratification Giver;
    c. position of the Gratification Recipient;
    d. place and date of acceptance or refusal of the Gratification;
    e. a description of the type of Gratification received or refused;
    f. value of the Gratification received or refused;
    g. a chronology of the acceptance or refusal of the Gratification; and
    h. evidences, documents, or supporting data relating to the Gratification.

Article 9

(1) The Gratification report as referred to in Article 8 paragraph (1) may be submitted:
    a. electronically; or
    b. non-electronically.
(2) The Gratification report submitted electronically as referred to in paragraph (1) subparagraph a is made through the Application.
(3) The Gratification report submitted non-electronically as referred to in paragraph (1) subparagraph b is made by completing the Gratification report form in accordance with the provisions of laws and regulations.
(4) The form as referred to in paragraph (3) is sent to the address of the UPG Secretariat.

Article 10

(1) The Gratification report submitted electronically as referred to in Article 9 paragraph (1) subparagraph ais followed up through:
    a. verifying and clarifying to ensure the completeness of the report;
    b. proceeding to the analysis step if the Gratification report is deemed complete based on the result of the verification and clarification; and
    c. returning the Gratification report for completion if the Gratification report is deemed incomplete based on the result of the verification and clarification.
(2) The Gratification report submitted non-electronically as referred to in Article 9 paragraph (1) subparagraph bis followed up through:

a. verifying and clarifying to ensure the completeness of the report;
b. registering an account on the Application for new Gratification Reporters and enter the data contained in the Gratification report form into the Application if the report is deemed complete based on the result of the verification and clarification;
c. entering the data contained in the Gratification report form into the Application for Gratification Reporters already registered on the Application if the report is deemed complete based on the result of the verification and clarification; and
d. returning the Gratification report to the Gratification Reporters for completion if the Gratification report is deemed incomplete based on the result of the verification and clarification.

(3) The completeness of the Gratification report as referred to in paragraph (1) subparagraph a and paragraph (2) subparagraph a means the completeness of the information contained in the Gratification report, including the Gratification object that shall be submitted to the KPK as referred to in Article 8 paragraph (2).

(4) The Gratification Report as referred to in paragraph (1) subparagraph c and paragraph (2) subparagraph d is completed within five (5) workdays from the date of receipt by the Gratification Reporter of the returned Gratification report.

(5) Where the Gratification report as referred to in paragraph (4) remains incomplete, the UPG instructs the Gratification Reporters to submit the report directly to the KPK.

Article 11

Where the reported value of the Gratification object is unknown or does not correspond to its actual value, the UPG may collect information regarding the value of the Gratification object.

Article 12

(1) The Gratification report that is deemed complete as referred to in Article 10 paragraph (1) subparagraph b and paragraph (2) subparagraphs b and c is analyzed.

(2) The analysis of the Gratification report as referred to in paragraph (1) is conducted to determine whether the Gratification object is subject to the reporting obligation or excluded from such obligation.

(3) In conducting the analysis of the Gratification report as referred to in paragraph (1), the UPG may coordinate with the KPK.

Article 13

The result of the analysis as referred to in Article 12 paragraph (1) may be in the form of:

a. Gratification report to be forwarded to the KPK; or
b. Gratification report not to be forwarded to the KPK.

Article 14

(1) The Gratification report not to be forwarded to the KPK as referred to Article 13 subparagraph b if:
   a. the gratification object is excluded;
   b. has been addressed by the Inspectorate.
(2) The Gratification report not to be forwarded to the KPK as referred to in paragraph (1) is communicated to the Gratification Reporter by means of a notification letter.
(3) The Gratification report not forwarded to the KPK as referred to in paragraph (1) is recorded by the UPG in the Gratification register.

Article 15

(1) Where the status of the Gratification has been determined as belonging to the Gratification Recipient, the Gratification Reporter or the UPG may directly collect the Gratification object.
(2) Where the UPG directly collects the Gratification object as referred to in paragraph (1), the UPG shall return the Gratification object to the Gratification Reporter within five (5) workdays after the UPG receives the Gratification object.
(3) Where the Gratification object is not included in the report forwarded to the KPK and the Gratification object is kept by the UPG, the UPG shall return the Gratification object to the Gratification Reporter within five (5) workdays after the determination of the ownership status of the Gratification is received by the UPG.

Article 16

(1) The Gratification Reporters acting with good faith have the right to:
   a. receive an explanation regarding their right and obligation in reporting Gratification;
   b. receive information on the progress of the Gratification report; and
   c. receive protection.
(2) The protection as referred to in paragraph (1) subparagraph c may be in the form of:
   a. confidentiality of the identity of the Gratification Reporter where necessary;
   b. protection of the personal, family, and property security in connection with the Gratification report; and
   c. protection against discriminatory treatment in both personal and professional matters.
(3) The protection as referred to in paragraph (2) is provided upon the request of the Gratification Reporter and implemented in accordance with the provisions of laws and regulations.
(4) In implementing the protection as referred to in paragraph (2) subparagraph b, the UPG may coordinate with relevant institutions.

Article 17

(1) For the purpose of implementing Gratification Control, the UPG is established;

(2) The UPG as referred in paragraph (1) is established by the Coordinating Minister;
(3) The UPG as referred in paragraph (1) is established within the Inspectorate.

Article 18

(1) The UPG as referred to in Article 6 consists of:
    a. person in charge;
    b. chairperson;
    c. members; and
    d. secretariat.
(2) The person in charge as referred to in paragraph (1) subparagraph a is held by the Secretary of the Coordinating Ministry.
(3) The chairperson as referred to in paragraph (1) subparagraph b is held by Inspector.
(4) The members as referred to in paragraph (1) subparagraph c consist of:
    a. specialist position of auditor; and
    b. other relevant officials within the Coordinating Ministry.
(5) The secretariat as referred to in paragraph (1) subparagraph d is held by the head of the work unit responsible for carrying out administrative affairs within the Inspectorate.

Article 19

(1) The duties of the UPG include:
    a. preparing regulations, technical guidelines, and other provisions for implementing Gratification Control;
    b. disseminating or awareness-raising activities of the Coordinating Ministry's policies concerning Gratification to Employees and State Administrators within the Coordinating Ministry, work partners, third parties, stakeholders, and the general public;
    c. mapping of vulnerable point for the acceptance and giving of gratification;
    d. receiving, analyzing, and administering reports on the acceptance of Gratification from Employees or State Administrators;
    e. receiving and administering reports on the refusal of Gratification, where Employees or State Administrators report refusal of Gratification;
    f. forwarding Gratification report to the KPK;
    g. reporting periodic recapitulation of Gratification acceptance and refusal reports to the KPK and the Coordinating Minister through the Secretary of the Coordinating Ministry;
    h. maintaining Gratification object until the status of such object is determined;
    i. monitoring and evaluating the implementation of Gratification Control within the Coordinating Ministry;
    j. preparing and submitting an annual report on Gratification Control to the Coordinating Minister through the Secretary of the Coordinating Ministry; and

k. coordinating and consulting with the KPK in the implementation of Gratification Control.

(2) In carrying out the duties as referred to in paragraph (1), the UPG may involve relevant ministries/institutions, experts, practitioners, and/or academics.

Article 20

Gratification reports that have been received and are still being processed by the UPG prior to the entry into force of this Regulation of the Coordinating Minister, be completed in accordance with the Regulation of the Coordinating Minister for Political and Security Affairs Number 1 of 2020 on Gratification Control within Coordinating Ministry for Political, Legal, and Security Affairs.

Article 21

Upon the entry into force of this this Regulation of the Coordinating Minister, Regulation of the Coordinating Minister for Political and Security Affairs Number 1 of 2020 on Gratification Control within Coordinating Ministry for Political, Legal, and Security Affairs (Official Gazette of the Republic of Indonesia Year 2020 Number 16), is hereby repealed and declared to be ineffective.

Article 22

This Regulation of the Coordinating Minister shall enter into force on the date of its promulgation.

In order to make this Regulation of the Coordinating Minister known to the public, it is hereby ordered that it be promulgated by its publication in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Indonesia.

issued in Jakarta
on 30 September 2025

COORDINATING MINISTER
FOR POLITICAL AND SECURITY AFFAIRS
OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA,

signed

BUDI GUNAWAN

Promulgated in Jakarta
on 8 September 2025

DIRECTOR GENERAL OF LEGISLATION
OF THE MINISTRY OF LAW OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA,

signed

DHAHANA PUTRA

OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA OF 2025 NUMBER 673

Prepared and issued as an official translation

Jakarta, 7 October 2026
DIRECTOR GENERAL OF LEGISLATION
FOR THE MINISTER OF LAW
OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA,

DHAHANA PUTRA

Official Translation Notice:
This English translation is provided for information and reference purposes only. In the event of any discrepancy, inconsistency, or ambiguity between the English version and the Indonesian version, the Indonesian version shall prevail.