ELUCIDATION OF
REGULATION OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA
NUMBER 85 OF 2013
ON
PROCEDURES FOR INTER-INSTITUTIONAL RELATIONS OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY AGENCY

I. GENERAL

Law Number 24 of 2011 on Social Security Agency which was enacted and promulgated on 25 November 2011 is the implementation of Law Number 40 of 2004 on National Social Security System after the ruling of the Constitutional Court in the case Number 07/PUU-III/2005.
The Law on the Social Security Agency is intended to provide legal certainty for the establishment of the Social Security Agency (BPJS) to implement the Social Security throughout the territory of Indonesia.

The provision of Social Security for all Indonesian people is basically a state duty as mandated in Article 34 paragraph (2) of the 1945 Constitution of the Republic of Indonesia.

In order to improve the quality of the Social Security program, Article 51 paragraph (1) of Law on Social Security Agency stipulates that "BPJS cooperates with Government institutions." Paragraph (2) stipulate that "In performing its duties, BPJS may cooperate with other national or international organizations or institutions." The elucidation of this paragraph states that "Cooperation with national or international organizations or institutions is carried out in order to improve the quality of BPJS or the quality of services to Members." Furthermore, paragraph (3) stipulates that "BPJS may act on behalf of the Republic of Indonesia as a member of the international organization or institution if there is a provision that requires members of the international organization or institutions to act on behalf of the State".

This Government Regulation is stipulated as an implementation of the provisions of Article 51 paragraph (4) of Law on Social Security Agency, which stipulates that "Further provisions regarding procedures for inter-institutional relations are regulated by a Government Regulation".

This Government Regulation regulates the procedures for BPJS's relationship with Government institutions and local governments, procedures for BPJS's cooperation with other national or international organizations or institutions, and procedures for becoming a member of international organizations and/or institutions in the Social Security sector.
